EXPERIENCE

Professional Horsewoman

2019 - Current

I specialize in offering Equine TLC, Relationship & Trust Building, Gentle Training, and the Facilitation of Field Experiences for children, teenagers, and adults. In 2025, I will have some new offerings to add.

Professional Medium, Guide, and Animal Communicator

2018 - Current

I was born a natural medium and animal communicator. In 2018, after the loss of three loved ones, I diligently began devoting my time to refining my gifts so that I may best serve those who seek such support, be it to connect with higher consciousness, loved one on the other side, to deepen their relationship with animals and all living things, to gain guidance and a helpful shift in perspective, or to more clearly align with their soul's reason for being here on Earth at this time. I have studied with a wide array of teachers, from the world-renowned Tony Stockwell to the New York Times Best-Selling Authors James Van Praagh and Laura Lynne Jackson.

Professional Writer

1984 - Current

A natural storyteller and artist. Throughout life and college, my teachers, professors, and readers consistently affirmed that I was a gifted, creative writer with a knack for noticing and discussing the often overlooked. This collective encouragement has carried me through forty years of learning and refining my craft. While most of my writing exists in notebooks, and a few articles and posts can be found online, I am only now beginning to have the courage to share with the world what had previously remained hidden.

Santa Barbara Middle School, Santa Barbara, CA — Teacher

2014 - 2018

Joyfully specialized in teaching electives, including art, writing, environmental stewardship, gardening, surfing, yoga, and meditation classes. As a Wilderness First Responder, I have also served as an outdoor educator for various trips and expeditions.

CALLING

I am here to remind humanity of the light: the light we are, the light we come from, and the light we return to.

I am delightfully devoted to being of service to Spirit, People, Animals, and the Earth.
